

Beaujolais-Villages "Les Jeunes Pousses"

AOC Beaujolais Villages, Beaujolais, France

PRESENTATION

The name "Jeunes Pousses" does not mean young vines. Instead, it refers to this nursery for young winegrowers. We offer newcomers to the wine world a chance to manage the estate for a three-year period, covering all activities, from vineyard to sales. At the end of period, the sale of the wines they produced along with the experience they acquire allows them to create their own estate and launch their own career.

LOCATION

This plot is located a few kilometers from Moulin-à-Vent, in the magnificent village of Emeringes in the Beaujolais Villages appellation. The vines are relatively old, with the youngest at 40 years and the oldest at over 100.

TERROIR

This cuvée is produced from a blend of five hectares of vines located on granite and sandy terroir.

VARIETAL

Gamay 100%
